As reflect in its name, the "Honor Shoot" we will pay tribute to three Nebraska shooters. This year we honor Mike and Stacy Zaruba and Gerald Larson.

Mike and Stacy Zaruba

Mike is extremely grateful to have been introduced to trap shooting by his uncle Dan VanZandt in 1996. Mike has registered over 44,000 total targets since 1996. He is excited that his wife and daughter over the past year have started to shoot. He looks forward to being able to shoot with his family in the years to come.

Mike and Stacy have had the privilege of serving the NTA as the Awards Committee for the past 7 years. Mike and Stacy believe strongly in volunteering time and paying it forward. As result they began contributing added money to events at the State Shoot in 2013. They have continued to grow their support throughout the years. They currently sponsor and plan to continue to sponsor Day 2 of State Shoot. They want to encourage all shooters, especially younger shooters to do whatever they are able to support our great sport. The future of the NTA and trap shooting is dependent on younger shooters supporting it and stepping into leadership roles.

Mike and Stacy met in Omaha in 1998 and were married in 1999. They have one daughter, Cassidy, who is 17, and attends Auburn High School. The Zarubas reside in Auburn, NE where Mike is a partner at Auburn Family Health Center. Mike is a board certified Family Medicine Physician and Stacy is self-employed, working as a relief pharmacist for a number of different pharmacies.

Gerald R. (Jerry) Larson

Gerald R. (Jerry) Larson was a great husband, father, grandfather and friend. He was born June 26, 1934 and passed away on January 12, 2017. He was sort of a person who did not seek the spotlight and tended to stay in the background helping and supporting others in whatever way he could.

Jerry loved his family and enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping and most outdoor activities. He grew up doing all these activities with his parents and three brothers. He also loved teaching his two sons and grandchildren how to hunt fish and trap shoot.

Jerry was a squad member of the first organized trap team in Central City, Nebraska that started in 1965. He was a lifelong member of the Central City Sportsman's Club. His love for trap shooting grew stronger from that time on. He shot in many different registered trap shoots in several states. In 1969 he won the High Overall at the Nebraska State Trapshoot in Doniphan, Nebraska with a score of 807 out of 850.

Jerry shot at the 27 yard line and his shooting skills earned him many awards and trophies over the years. He shot many 100 straights in his lifetime. His wife, Ruth, his two daughters and his two sons are all very proud of him. Since Jerry was not one to brag or take the lime-light his family is having a hard time knowing, for sure, what all of his trophies were for.
