Commentary:

Great weather brought out the largest crowd we've had in the last 5 years, or more. Or was it the pizza & fried chicken lunch.

Singles:

Of the 40 shooters, 35 broke a 90 or better. There were 38 scores of 25. There was high drama on center trap. Matt Erion was 90 straight when he caught my attention. It was tense watching him, the crowd was quiet. I think his 94th broke in half. He was 99 straight, took a little extra time on the last target, a near straight away from post #4. LOST. He was denied his first ever 100 straight. Wayne Meyers dropped his 47th target, denied also.

Handicap:

Of the 36 shooters, 15 broke 90 or better, including 2 shooters who broke a 96 for a 1/2 yard punch.

Doubles:

I think the wind came in causing the doubles scores to tumble, but there were two 92s.

Wayne Meyers took HOA with a 284, followed by Dan Schocke with a 283.

We paid out $672.00 in options and added money. Of the 41 shooters, 14 were from Illinois, 1 from Michigan and 26 were from Indiana.

Our next shoot will be July 7th.
