Except for a brief period of rain near the end of the Doubles, a near perfect day.

Except for 6 scores, everyone else in the Singles shot in the 90s. Henry Bahr shot his 1st 100 straight, ever. He was followed by 3 98s, 3 97s and so on down the line. There were 30 scores of 25 straight. Scoresheet was a sea of red 25s.

In the handicap event, the high score was a 95. Each of them got a 1/2 yard punch. The seniors & the Vets had high scores.

There was a struggle in A class in the Doubles, between the 2 Toms, with Strabavy on top with a 94, and Antczak right behind him with a 93.

Everyone always says this is a game of "one target. That was evident in the above scores. Also showed up in the HOA, where Richards aced out Strabavy, 280 vs 279.

We paid out $706.50 in options and added money, including the $100 Mike Anderson Bounty collected by Henry Bahr.

Our next shoot will be May 5th.
