Commentary:

The weather did get a little warm, upper 80s, but was a good day overall, sunny and no wind.

Singles:

Of the 34 shooters, 26 broke a 90 or better. Tom A. dropped his 27th target, and a rising star, Dennis K. dropped his 21st target, both scoring 99s. After that, there were 3 97s, 2 96s, 7 95s, 2 94s, 2 93s, 4 92s, 3 91s & a 90. Great scores.

Handicap:

The handicap scores were not as great as last month, but there were 3 shooters that had high scores of 95, each of them earning a 1/2 yard punch. After them we had a 94, 3 93s, a 92, 3 91s & a 90. We had 17 shooters that participated in a relatively new option, the Middle 50s. Jean Aubin broke 25 / 24 for the only 49 in the middle 50, worth $85.00.

Doubles:

I think that by the time doubles was up, the shooters were weary of the heat, with the high score being an 89.

Doug Darby took the HOA with a 275, followed by Bill Mager with a 274 & Larry Lipa with a 273. Yes, one target matters.

We paid out $598 in options and added money, and threw 7,500 targets. Of the 36 shooters for the day, 13 were from Illinois and the rest from Indiana.

Once again we need to recognize all those that volunteered to help this shoot go smoothly. Thanks guys.

Our next shoot will be September 1st.
