Singles Event Commentary:

The weather was ideal. So much so that Curtis Held got his first ever 100 straight in the Singles, in A class. He was followed by a 99 by Larry Lipa in C class. Marc Granrath put up a 98 as SV, Doug Darby took B class with a 96 followed by numerous scores of 95. Brent Woltzen shot his first ever ATA event as a SJ with a 72.

Handicap Event Commentary:

Jean Aubin took top honors with a 95 in short yardage, earning himself a half yard punch. He was followed by Nate Schocke with a 94, then a 93 by Don Kasch, 92 by Larry Lipa and a pair of 91s by Curtis Held and George Krach.

Doubles Event Commentary:

It was slim pickings in the Doubles, but Bill Mager did squeeze out a high of 94.

Special thanks to Dan Schocke. This was the first time in 12 years that my wife did not run the shoot, as she is having health issues. Dan jumped right in, got me jump started with the 3S Trap program. He was a life saver, thanks again.

We threw 6,300 targets, and paid out $505 in options & added money. Next regular 100 target program will be on Sept. 6th.

Reminder: If you are not a regular shooter at Glen Park, we would appreciate it if shooters could check with the cashier to see if they have payouts. If you collect on day of the shoot, it would save us the time & cost to mail out checks.
