Singles Event Commentary:

It was a nice Fall day, cloudy at times, with the sun popping in & out, and the wind kicking up at times. Lots of scores of 90 or better. Great shooting by Bahr & Antczak, but each had a target elude them. No one claimed the $100 Bounty, but competitive, with 2 99s, 1 98, 2 97s & 2 96s. Tom dropped his 2nd target, Bahr his 67th.

Handicap Event Commentary:

The wind & sun made an appearance, and it shows in the scores. There were a pair of 93s, each getting a 1/2 yard. Lester Busch, Jr kept his run for HOA alive with 93.

Doubles Event Commentary:

No shooter broke in the 90s, which is due mostly to the wind and sun popping in & out. Dinkel topped all with his 89.

Thanks to shooters who pitched in to load targets & score, as we were really short handed. There were too many people to thank, but every time we were in a pinch, people came forward.

We threw 6,900 targets, paid $540 in options. We had Shamrock Leather trophies for the winners, always welcome by shooters
Reminder: If you are not a regular shooter at Glen Park, we would appreciate it if you could check with the cashier to see if you have payouts BEFORE you leave. However, you need to wait till ALL scores are entered, and the reports are posted! Our last regular Sunday ATA shoot for this year will be November 1st. Daylight Saving Time ends on that Sunday. I think we will plan something special for our shooters, like maybe FREE Fried Chicken from Strack Van Til.
