SHOOTING RECORDS SET IN 1974

During 1974 two shooters established record averages on 100,000 and 150,000 registered singles targets. In May at the Golden West Grand in Reno, Nev., Dan Orlich recorded his 100,000th registered 16-yard target with a .98827 average, representing only 1,173 misses over a 23-year period. This eclipsed the former high of .98056 set in 1961 by Vic Reinders, the first person to enter a 98+ average on that number of targets. During the Friday preliminary-day singles at the Grand American, Reinders registered his 150,000th 16-yard bird, with a history-making mark of .97862.

Larry Gravestock set a new high for individual performances in perfect doubles scores when he broke his 12th on July 20 at the ATA Western Zone Shoot at Salt Lake City, U. On Aug. 17, during preliminary Saturday's doubles contest at the Grand, Dan Bonillas matched that total, achieving his 12 100s in doubles within a 27-month period. Gravestock shot his initial 100 straight twins in 1963. Next in the number of lifetime 100s in doubles is Morris Stinebring, who recorded his 10th while tieing for the Grand Doubles Championship.

Although Gravestock holds the long-run doubles record of 335 straight, broken during two shoots in 1973, Ed Bernardelli set a mark by hitting 261 straight twins in one day, during a Sept. 6 marathon at the Livermore-Pleasanton R&GC in Livermore, Cal. His 261 becomes the second-longest run in the history books, overshadowing performances of 251 apiece by Hugh Bowie and Mark Huff in 1973.

World marks were set for most targets shot by an individual and by a squad in one day as Jerry Vernon, George Perry, William Lafferty, Gary Montcalm and O. N. Hamilton Jr. fired at 3,000 registered singles targets apiece Oct. 26 at the Oak Grove (La.) GC. The five broke a record held jointly by nine men who shot at 2,000 targets per man in one day in 1973. Dr. L. G. Rinck, Jay Flick, Robert Hochstetler, Brian Wenger, Tony Senff, David Flewellen, Bernie Johnsen, Edwin Snell and James Hutton shot at the Kankakee Valley T&SR in Lowell, Ind.
